FINKELSTEIN THOMPSON LLP

FINKELSTEIN THOMPSON LLP (“the firm”), is a complex litigation firm, with offices in Washington, DC and San Francisco, CA, focusing primarily on suits involving antitrust violations, fraud and crime in the banking, securities and commodities industries, and consumer fraud.

By concentrating exclusively on litigation, rather than a generalized transactional practice, the firm avoids the conflicts of interest, both actual and philosophical, that can arise from multi-faceted representation, and is able to offer the kind of hard-hitting approach that modern complex litigation demands. Since 1993, the firm has served in a leadership position in cases that have recovered many hundreds of millions of dollars for investors and consumers.

Because the outcome of litigation is often dependent on the strength of expert testimony, the firm has developed strong working relationships with nationally prominent outside consultants in the areas of securities, commodities, antitrust, banking, consumer fraud, marketing and economics.

HISTORY

The firm was founded in March 1977 by Burton H. Finkelstein and Douglas G. Thompson, Jr. The firm's offices are located in Washington, DC and in San Francisco, CA.

EXPERIENCE

The firm is involved in class action litigation in federal and state courts nationwide. It has developed a reputation for successful and thorough representation of class clients against many of the largest and most powerful companies in the country. As part of our efforts to serve our clients' interests in the most effective and efficient manner possible, the firm has established ongoing relationships with other class action law firms whose size, location or expertise complement our own. We are proud to have won judgments and negotiated settlements that have recovered an aggregate of over one billion dollars for class members.

Douglas G. Thompson, Jr., one of the founding and named partners of the firm, has prosecuted and defended complex civil and criminal matters for over forty years. The other partners and associates have extensive experience in a variety of complex litigation fields. The firm has practiced before the Securities and Exchange Commission, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Federal Trade Commission, Federal Communications Commission, U.S. Copyright Office, New York Stock Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade, National Association of Securities Dealers, National Futures Association, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and in various state and federal trial and appellate courts across the country, in civil and criminal enforcement matters and in private damage litigation. The firm has considerable expertise and experience in defending and prosecuting complex financial class action claims.

SECURITIES & COMMODITIES CLASS ACTION LITIGATION

Since its inception in 1977, the firm's securities litigation practice has extended across a wide range of shareholders' securities litigation, from accounting fraud, allegations of insider trading, proxy statement fights, and minority shareholder rights being violated, to cases alleging misstatements in prospectuses. The firm has litigated substantive federal issues under the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Reform Act of 1995, and tender offers under the Williams Act, derivative suits under State and Federal law, and unfair business practices claims.

Our clients have included institutional investors, pension funds, high-net worth individuals and retail investors. While few class action securities suits go to trial, substantial skill and experience is required to investigate, prepare, and litigate the underlying claims to successful resolution. The firm enjoys a national reputation for high-quality and successful recoveries for our clients.

The firm also selectively prosecutes actions pursuant to the Commodity Exchange Act regarding market manipulations involving commodity futures and options. To date, the firm has enjoyed considerable success in these matters, which are recognized as some of the most difficult causes of action to successfully pursue.
